

JMBI Adds Kimberly Goldstein to Meet Growth in Firm's Risk Management/Private Equity Practice

A sound risk management strategy is critical to Private Equity success.

Chicago, April 14, 2014 – JMB Insurance \("JMBI"\) announces that Kimberly Goldstein has joined the firm. Kim brings a wealth of knowledge and experience working with high profile companies (most recently with Private Equity firms) on their risk management strategies and coverages. As a Vice President and Team Leader, Kim will work with JMBI's portfolio of clients, and identify new opportunities to develop and expand the companies JMBI serves.

"We are pleased to add Kim as we continue to invest and grow," said Matt Horwitch, Co-CEO JMB Insurance. "Our team's unique combination of deep industry expertise supporting clients' due diligence process and the evaluation of their existing strategies has been, and will continue to be, core to our success of building market-leading risk management practices."

Kim has 20 years of risk management experience. In addition to the Private Equity industry, Kim has worked with clients in the real estate, aviation, retail and manufacturing industries. She joins JMBI from a private risk management and insurance consulting firm where she was a Senior Vice President. Kim has worked with clients across a range of size and complexity. Risk and Insurance Magazine named Kim a 2013 Power Broker in the Aviation category.

"Due diligence and strategic risk management can be a complicated proposition when a PE firm is evaluating an investment opportunity," said Ken Sacks, Co-CEO, JMB Insurance. "Kim's leadership and client centric approach will serve our clients well."
